Wheeling, W. Va. 3/14/49: Wng.: Outside mine foreman Harold "Lard" Vitale of the Valley Camp coal company mine number 5, here, gives off with a big yawn expressing his sentiments of the inactivity at the mine. The miners in this area left the pits Friday night due to the scheduled no working shifts over the weekend and expect to return Monday morning, March 28. (Acme Telephoto)

Sorry to hear of his passing. One of my favorite teachers. His father - also named Harold but he went by "Lard" - coached Wheeling Post 1 American Legion baseball for years and won 4 state legion championships. John Beilein was a student teacher for him the year after I graduated from JMHS. Said Mr. Vitale was one of the most intelligent people he ever met. RIP, Mr. Vitale. You impacted a lot of lives.
